Reviewed Previous Minutes

Treasurer Report: Landen, GVDGC has approximately $2,000 in the operations bank account, and $2,000 in Palisade Reserves, which are funds that can only be used in Palisade for tournaments and events ran there.

Discussion: Tags Update from Tim, Tags are still $20.00, we are approximately down to 15 tags out of 200

Discussion: Peaks and Valleys Update, Discussed end of series party potentially at Corn Hole Etc..

Discussed trophies for series division winners.

Discussed last Peaks to be October 19 at Palisade.

Palisade Exclamation Point to still be held on Nov. 2.

Discussed the successful alliances GVDGC is forming with Roaring Fork and M.O.D. Mafia Disc Golf Clubs in Glenwood and Delta Area

Discussed the sponsors and how amazing it is to have them, first was Nature's Fusion and then discussed Happy Camper supporting JC's league and how tag holders will receive discounts at their dispensary by showing their tag

Discussion about Fruita, Riverfront Disc Golf Course at Snook's Bottom, and the plans for Xcel to put in new power towers and access road that will go straight through the course, removing multiple holes, Josh and Levi have been in discussion with the Parks Director of Fruita on solutions and plans for the course, scheduling a time to walk the course and discuss with Mark on next steps.

Watson Island discussion with the City of Grand Junction, Randy explained what is happening at Watson, discussed possible work days, also discussed Matchett. Discussed Westlake as well. Lots of items are being worked on by the city, they are looking to hire folks that can pass a drug test, and do work on the disc golf parks part time, flexible schedules. Discussed safety and why it's critical to report everything so that the GJPD has records.

City is having a learn disc golf day on September 19th, most likely in the morning, for their staff members so they can better understand what Disc Golfers need for maintenance on the courses.

Open Discussion, Derek Winstanley was voted on to join the board

Next meeting currently set for September 9,2024
